New Solicitation Tuesday For United Fund Pledges

By WILLIAM F. WINTER
Editor

(Second of two articles)
The Quad-Cities identity and future as a close-knit community affects and is affected by the current Tri-Cities Area United Fund dilemma.

With only 77% of the $413,661 goal raised, the UF is in trouble because many of the October drive tasks have not yet been carried out and because of Missouri's accelerated push for St. Louis regionalism and against separate communities. In an effort to put the current campaign over its goal, United Fund backers and the 19 member agencies will conduct an intensive drive tomorrow. The UF board has scheduled a breakfast meeting for 8 a.m. Tuesday at the YWCA. The one-day solicitation is intended to complete initial fund-raising contacts and also to appeal for second gifts from individuals, organizations and businesses.

The absence of many fund contacts this fall was mentioned in the last article. Principal reason is believed to be the longtime lack of a full-time UF manager.

An example of the inactivity is a group of several hundred employed members, not contacted for a substantial period of time for contributions of any kind.

An entire division of the drive also has failed to make any repeat pledges.

Discipline of the "military line" variety apparently is lacking in many instances. UF help is voluntary, of course, and not enforceable in the military sense. But some of the military structure and performance with each rung of the campaign ladder responsible and answerable to the next rung—could be helpful.

"Projections" of what funds may be available continue to be utilized this year, long after the normal arrival time of pledges.

Some of the projections apparently assume results which are non-existent. But not all of the problems are "this side of the river."

The movement toward regionalism made itself felt with special impact this fall.

After a breakthrough a year ago in which nearly five-figure support was obtained for the Tri-Cities Area United Fund through federal employees, the St. Louis UF privately negotiated a new agreement which cut off such funds to this community and channeled them to St. Louis a few weeks ago.

This maneuver, contributing materially to the plus-100% St. Louis United Fund drive this fall, is only one instance of many in which Illinois UF programs are blocked—despite the fact that many local residents are involved in the giving and receive little direct benefit from the St. Louis UF agencies.

Vast Missouri-based manufacturers, such as a leading aerospace-aircraft firm, channel their corporate gifts to the St. Louis United Fund.

And several Quad-City industries ended their Tri-Cities UF backing totally this fall, pleading red-tape or impaired operations.

The net effect of such diverse developments has been devastating.

Although the picture appears to be bleak, many of the elements are at least partly solvable once they become better known and once corrective actions are begun.

Employment reduction here has hurt; such occurrences as the St. Louis UF disavowal of an artificial impediment which might be fought successfully if a bright enough spotlight was shown on it.

Structural problems within the Tri-Cities Area UF solicitation surely are solvable with improved coordination and communication, particularly if an able, hard-working manager is hired.

Whether tomorrow's efforts alone can result in full success is unknown.

The need for success remains urgent, so that member agencies can have adequate 1973 operating funds rather than the 80% now in sight.

If only four-fifths of the $413,661 objective becomes available, it would cut the member agencies' allocations as follows:

Salvation Army, $23,500 cut to $18,800.
Catholic Charities, $37,500 cut to $30,000.
Protestant Welfare, $18,500 cut to $14,800.

Coordinated Youth Services, $30,000 cut to $24,000.
Family Service Agency, $4,000 cut to $3,200.

Illinois Children's Homes and Aid Society, $7,000 cut to $5,600.
Alcoholism Council, $10,840 cut to $8,672.

American Red Cross, $35,000 cut to $28,000.
Arthritis Foundation, $3,000 cut to $2,400.

Granite City Association for Retarded, $7,061 cut to $5,648.
Health Services Fund, $3,000 cut to $2,400.

Visiting Nurse Association, $9,500 cut to $7,600.
Boy Scouts, $55,000 cut to $44,000.

Girl Scouts, $20,000 cut to $16,000.
Fraternal Society of Retired Members, $1,800 cut to $1,440.
Madison Teen Town, $5,600 cut to $4,480.

YMCA and Teen Town, $73,000 cut to $58,400.
United Service Organization (USO), $5,600 cut to $4,480.
Urban League, $1,000 cut to $800.

NEW COURTHOUSE TERMS are being started by these five Madison County officials elected Nov. 7. They are shown during ceremonies Friday morning in which their oaths of office were administered. Left to right are Recorder of Deeds Ronald Lucas of Maryville, County Auditor John Kraynak of Granite City, State's Attorney Nicholas Byron of Edwardsville, Circuit Clerk Willard Portell of Collinsville and Mrs. Dallas Burke of Alton, coroner.

Freezing Rain Adds To Traffic Crash Toll

By GARY SCHNEIDER

Press-Record Staff Writer
A light freezing rain throughout the region yesterday and this morning was responsible for streets becoming hazardous, causing numerous accidents, including a double-fatality mishap outside the Quad-City area.

Through noon today there were 33 weekend crashes and 24 injuries, many of them severe.

Carol Ann Schneider, 16, and John Heuer, 20, both of Belleville, were fatally injured when their westbound car went out of control, slid sideways and struck a tree.

Three persons in the other auto were brought to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment.

Paul Marks, four, of Wichita, Kan., was transferred to Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, in critical condition. His father, Harry Marks, 22, was admitted here with multiple injuries. The driver, Frank Marks, 44, also of Wichita, was admitted to the local hospital with a laceration to his nose and a contusion to his chest.

Particularly hazardous was the Interstate 270 bridge over Route 203, near Mitchell, on which four accidents occurred, three within 17 minutes of each other.

At 10:20 p.m. Sunday the auto of Harrell Smith, 615 Fleming St., Mitchell, slid on the bridge into the median and tipped onto its side.

Five minutes later, the car of Walter William Fox, St. Louis, went out of control on the ice and struck the inside railing of the bridge. At 10:37 p.m. Sunday, the car of Joan Beach, St. Louis, slid sideways on the bridge and came to rest in the median.

A multi-vehicle accident occurred on the ramp from the bridge at 8:40 a.m. today. Witnesses said four or five autos and a tractor-trailer truck were involved. There were no injuries. One car began to burn and Mitchell firemen extinguished it.

A festive evening of dining and dancing marked the Granite City Jaycees' 25th anniversary celebration Saturday evening. More than 200 attended the event at the Cranston Hall in Madison.

Silver, blue and gold appointments and floral arrangements decorated the dining room, where a gourmet meal of salmon, trout, chicken, tetrazzini and filet de boeuf Japonais was served the dinner.

Addressing Jaycees members and guests was Reg White of Peoria, Illinois Jaycee president, who was presented a "key to the city" by David Partney, a Jaycee past president and son of Mayor Donald Partney of Granite City.

Framed certificates of appreciation were awarded to nine past presidents attending the affair, to the Granite City Press-Record, accepted by William F. Winter, editor, and to Mrs. Valerie Evenden, women's editor of the newspaper.

Past presidents introduced were Rich Dawdy, Earl Dotzauer, James Jeffries, Partney, Paul Morris, Boyd Presley, Bill Talley, James Burton and Fred Stille, the chapter's first president.

Guy Cooper currently heads the young men's service club.

Entertainment during the dinner hour was furnished by John Fornasewski, and the evening was spent dancing to the music of the Art Oliver orchestra.

A resume of the "silver years" was given by Boyd Presley, and guests were welcomed by Earl Warnhoff, anniversary chairman.

Jaycees in charge of arrangements were Owen Ross, Bill Weible, Cooper, Al DeLay and Darrell Weible. The program was arranged by past presidents Dawdy, Dotzauer, Jeffries, Presley and Stille. Mrs. Sylvia Woods of the Jaycees supervised the decorations.

The Granite City Jaycee chapter was founded Nov. 28, 1947, when East St. Louis Jaycees helped the nucleus group of 22 young men establish a charter, adopt a constitution and elect officers.

Since the inception, the Granite City Jaycees have initiated or assisted on many key projects in this community, such as obtaining traffic safety devices at the Maryville Road railroad crossing, scene of several auto-train accidents, securing release of funds for widening Nameoki Road, and helping obtain citizens' approval of a bond issue to construct the Wilson Park ice skating rink and recreation center.

Club members also spearheaded a project in which rest-room facilities were installed at the Granite City High School football stadium.

On a continuing basis, Jaycees provide assistance at the monthly immunization clinic at St. Elizabeth

Extra Laclede Steel Dividend — General Steel Extends Debt

General Steel Industries, Inc., announced during the weekend that it has reached an oral agreement in principle with the holders of its indebtedness for rescheduling of the due dates of such indebtedness.

The indebtedness aggregates approximately $40,000,000, of which $27,000,000 became due on Nov. 30 and the remainder was subject to accelerated payment.

Under the proposed plan, which is expected to be incorporated in definitive agreements to be entered into prior to the end of 1972, the holders of its indebtedness would exchange the indebtedness for secured notes with a final maturity of March 31, 1975.

The definitive agreement to implement the proposed plan will require the approval of the General Steel Industries board of directors and of each lender.

Levee Board Reorganizes, Elects All New Officers

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

Rommel Wilson of East St. Louis was elected president of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District in a special meeting this morning — the first since the election of five levee board trustees in the Nov. 7 election.

Wilson replaces William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice, president of the levee board for the past two years.

Three new St. Clair County trustees — Wilton, Jack Scoville and Charles Meyers — a majority of the five-man board, passed a series of motions in which they also replaced Mrs. Helen Christich of Granite City as chief clerk with the appointment of Mrs. Blanche Fields as temporary clerk.

Scoville was elected vice president.

George Thomas of East St. Louis was appointed treasurer, replacing Thomas Staicoff of Ponton Beach. Dorothy Thomas, who has been serving as temporary deputy clerk, was appointed deputy clerk.

As attorneys, the three St. Clair County trustees named William B. Stearns and Wendell Wheaton of East St. Louis for the levee district, and Robert Godfrey of East St. Louis as attorney for the district's pollution department.

Von Dee Cruise of Granite City was appointed administrative assistant in Madison County at a salary of $1 per year.

Ebersoldt, who is hospitalized for surgery at the Missouri-Pacific Hospital, did not attend the meeting. Russell Robinson of Granite City, the other Madison county trustee on the board, passed on all appointment motions.

GC, Levee District Hearings This Week

Hearings by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency are scheduled Wednesday, 1:30 p.m., for the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, and at 1:30 p.m. Thursday for the city of Granite City. Both hearings are scheduled at the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge on Interstate 55-70 and Illinois Route 157.

Hearings will involve variance requests by both taxing bodies who seek extensions of Dec. 31, 1973 deadlines for installation of secondary sewage treatment facilities.

She was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for a hematoma to the forehead and was released following x-rays. Ingles was issued a stop sign violation ticket.

HURT IN VENICE CRASH

Eddie Simmons, 70, of 1104 Calhoun St., Venice, lost control of his auto at 1:20 a.m. Sunday while traveling north on South Fourth street in Venice and struck a utility pole. Simmons was trapped in the car and Venice firemen had to pry off the car door to free him. The power line also shorted and caught the pole on fire. Simmons was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was transferred to Jewish Hospital, St. Louis. He was in fair condition in the intensive care unit there today.

Test of Different Street Lights Proposed to City

An ordinance authorizing two pilot projects to test a different type of street lighting is scheduled for consideration by the Granite City Council tonight.

If approved, the ordinance would permit the Illinois Power Co. to install a total of 18 mercury vapor lights of 11,000 lumens in the New Lexington subdivision and along Emert and Zippel streets in Dream Villa No. 3.

Council members last week instructed City Attorney Leon Scroggins to prepare the ordinance after John Blasigame of the power company explained that the more powerful lights could permit the city to reduce the number of installations for street lighting purposes.

Blasigame pointed out that the city now uses incandescent lamps of 4,000 lumens in the alleys and 6,000 lumens in the streets.

Aldermen Walter Nunn and Sieve Basarich of the Fifth Ward objected to the proposal, noting that they wanted no change from the present system in their ward.

Blasigame said that the city now pays $18 a year in power costs for operation of a 6,000 lumen incandescent light and $13.50 per year for a 4,000 lumen light. Cost of a mercury vapor light would be about $30 a year, but the mercury vapor lamp would provide about 85% more light than the other type, Blasigame said.

The city would profit from a greater spacing of lights, he said.

Eastland, Iroquois, Chatsworth, St. Paul, Murphysboro on List of Illinois Tragedies

Illinois has had many tragedies in its 154 years as a state and they were celebrated during Nov. 20-Dec. 3, Illinois History Week. But the state has also suffered numerous disasters that have taken the lives of many of its citizens.

State Historian William K. Alderfer has checked through records at the Illinois State Historical Library and has provided a list of disaster headlines from the past.

He found that the worst single disaster the Prairie State has suffered in terms of lives lost occurred not on dry prairie land but in a little river—the Chicago River—when the excursion steamer Eastland capsized on July 24, 1915 taking 812 lives.

The irony of this and two other of the state's worst disasters was that the victims had set out to enjoy a carefree holiday with no thought that they would not return safely home.

The Eastland was one of four vessels chartered to take 7,000 Western Electric Company employees for a day's outing on the dunes at St. Joseph, Mich.

It was a large ship—three decks, 1,900 gross tons, and a draft of 14 feet—and was tied up on the south side of the river at Clark Street.

At about 7:30 a.m., with 2,500 passengers on board—the boat began to pull out.

When it listed, the engineer opened the valves to let in water for ballast.

last; the ship righted itself and then listed toward the river and continued to roll over, until it rested on its side about half out of the water.

Passengers on that side were trapped and drowned, while others jumped overboard and drowned in the mad scramble.

The exact cause of the disaster was never determined. The most death-dealing fire in Illinois history was Chicago's Iroquois Theater holocaust of Dec. 30, 1903.

The theater stood on the north side of Randolph Street, between State and Dearborn, about where the Oriental theater now stands.

An overflow crowd of more than 1,400 had gone to the Christmas holiday matinee to see and laugh at Eddie Foy in "Mr. Bluebeard."

In the audience were many mothers with their children and schoolteachers who had taken whole rows of seats together.

During the second act at 3:15 p.m., an overheated electrical system ignited a flimsy drape at the side of the stage.

A workman tried to lower the asbestos curtain, but it became stuck.

An open stage door and a broken skylight created a draft that fanned the flames and gasses through the auditorium like a blower.

The lights went out and the panicked audience found exits locked, hidden by draperies, or opening inward.

When rescue workers finally were able to open the doors, they found bodies piled in front of the exits five and six feet deep.

The number who perished has never been determined exactly. The state historian consulted a number of sources and found that a current almanac gives the figure at 630, while the number in Chicago histories varies from 571 to 602.

The worst railroad accident in Illinois history was the famous Chatsworth wreck at midnight on Aug. 10, 1887, in which 81 persons were killed.

In that pre-auto period, one of the ways of varying the monotony of rural life was to go on an excursion trip the railroads provided at reduced rates.

More than 800 passengers were aboard the 20-car Toledo, Peoria and Western Railroad excursion train that had left Peoria at 7:15 p.m., bound for Niagara Falls (round trip $1.50).

The summer had been very dry and the wooden supports over a creek bed three miles east of Chatsworth (Livingston County) had been burned by a grass fire.

The first of the train's two locomotives got across the trestle but the second one and the 14 wooden coaches behind it piled up and caught fire.

None of the passengers in the six heavier wooden Pullman sleeping cars at the end of the train was among the victims.

The most destructive tornado ever to hit the United States was the one that crossed Southern Illinois the afternoon of March 18, 1925. It began in Missouri at 1 p.m.

In a little over three hours, it cut a swath across Illinois a half mile to a mile wide from Murphysboro to Princeton, Ind. The total number of lives lost was 689; of these, 606 were Illinoisans.

Property losses totaled $16,322,000 and $13,303,000 of this was in Illinois.

Murphysboro was the hardest hit town with a death toll of 224 and a property loss of $10 million.

West Frankfort had 127 killed and the towns of Griffin, De Soto, and Parrish were practically wiped off the map.

There have been numerous coal mine disasters in Illinois but the worst was the one that occurred Nov. 13, 1909, at the St. Paul Coal Mine Company at Cherry (Bureau County).

The death toll was 259, including 12 members of a rescue crew.

The men were trapped when some hay was ignited by kerosene torches as it was being lowered to the bottom for the mule stable there.

The shaft was sealed to smother the flames and when it was opened a week later 21 men were found still alive; one died soon after reaching the surface.

The state historian found that, while there have been numerous small plane crashes in Illinois, relatively few large planes have come down.

The worst airplane disaster in the state's history occurred Sept. 1, 1961, when a Trans World Airlines Constellation crashed at Clarendon Hills, near Hinsdale, killing the 78 people aboard.

Why Some Homes Are Sold More Readily Than Others

By FRANCIS E. JUDD
President
Granite City Board of Realtors

Why do some houses sell more readily than others, even though their competition offers similar location, size and price?

A realtor or other estate broker knows that the home buyer's choices are not predictable enough to give an exact answer to that question. At the same time, there are attractions that experience has shown can guide the choice.

A house that shows good care and pride of ownership has more appeal than one that does not.

It needn't be an elaborate difference. The care a family has given their home is apparent in many small ways.

It is essentially clean, recently painted, doors working properly, floors in good condition?

Are there flowers and shrubs that have given pleasure to the owners? Are they kept weeded, trimmed and healthy?

If there is a patio, has it been an addition to living, or a storage place for rusted and unused barbecue equipment, discarded toys and the lawn-mower?

Anyone preparing his house for sale should put himself into a buyer's shoes and take an objective look at his house, realizing that the buyer is looking at it with some misgivings.

This is probably one of the biggest decisions the family seeking a house will make.

Anything that detracts from that image should be fixed or changed.

It's sensible sometimes not to do major redecorating, because the first thing the new owners might do is change it to suit their own tastes.

At the same time, that doesn't mean that a dingy bathroom shouldn't be brightened with a coat of paint.

The housewife can do a great deal to help that image by having clean curtains and drapes at the windows, and wax on the floor, and do other things to contribute to a sense of cleanliness and order.

A vase of flowers on the kitchen table may strike just the right note with a woman who needs an emotional jog to become the new owner.

The man of the house can be sure the grass is mowed and recently trimmed, and a healthy green.

He can organize the inevitable clutter in the garage to table clutter in the garage to some degree of neatness, sweeping dust out of the corners and cobwebs off the windows.

Too Many Americans Take Moon Trips for Granted

(Second of two articles dealing with Apollo 17, the last of America's historic series of manned missions to the moon and probably man's last venture beyond the earth's orbit in this century.)

By FRANK MACOMBER
Military-Aerospace Writer
Copley News Service

Man's first cleared boot steps on the moon will be three and half years old by the time Apollo 17 astronauts land there Dec. 11. Americans since then have come to accept what once seemed to border on a miracle as an almost commonplace semiannual occurrence.

Even the mission which will bring down the curtain on the most costly, and imaginative scientific-engineering achievement in history has failed to excite Americans.

The presidential election, of course, drew much of the public's attention away from the sixth Apollo lunar mission. Moreover, the Vietnam war and social and economic problems at home have conspired to shove the Apollo program down on any list of national priorities.

Coupled with this is the constant cry of U.S. space program foes that the nation should turn to more earthly commitments once Apollo is at an end.

So, while Apollo will not come to the end of the line on a sour note, its heroes of a few years ago are half-forgotten, like last season's football stars, for Americans have short memories.

Ironically, Apollo is used most often these days by chronic complainers as they shout: "We can send men to the moon, but we can't buy a car with a decent bumper, a disposal unit that doesn't clog up a television set that doesn't conk out, etc. . . ."

Those who wanted to abandon manned space flight in this country of course seized on the unfortunate incidents surrounding the Apollo 13 mission, when astronauts carried some unauthorized commemorative stamps and other articles to the moon. This brought charges of "commercialism" which later turned out to be more poor judgment on the part of the Apollo 13 spacemen rather than any desire to make a financial killing.

Nonetheless, the harm was done and federal space agency officials had to talk their way out of that one at a time when they were preparing for the Apollo 17 nighttime liftoff Wednesday.

More was at stake than the last hurrah of the Apollo program. There still are men in Congress who would like to sidetrack the multibillion-dollar U.S. manned space shuttle program scheduled to get off the ground in 1978.

Even next year's three-mission Skylab project seemed in some jeopardy until the National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials disciplined the Apollo 15 astronauts.

Apollo never has had smooth sailing. It got off to a shaky start in January, 1967, when three astronauts died in the flames of the Apollo 1 spaceship during a ground test.

There were cries then to abandon the program as too dangerous, even before anyone had flown in an Apollo spacecraft.

But the errors in Apollo spacecraft structure and choice of materials were corrected and the program moved ahead to that day of triumph in July, 1969, when Apollo 11 Astronauts Neil Armstrong and Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin landed on the moon.

Since then eight other Americans have stalked the moon in near perfect performances, flawed only by the abortive Apollo 13 mission.

Now Apollo 17 Astronauts Eugene Cernan and Harrison H. Schmitt, the latter the first scientist-astronaut to fly in space, are to write the final chapter in the Apollo story. As they land on the moon Dec. 11 for a three-day stay, Astronaut Ronald Evans will pilot their command craft in a lunar orbit, examining the structure of the planet's surface from 70 miles out with an electronic "divining rod."

What it discovers will be used to help develop a subsurface geologic map of earth's closest neighbor.

George M. Low, NASA associate administrator and an outspoken critic of those who downgrade the achievements of the Apollo program, thinks too many Americans take Apollo's scientific and engineering feats for granted.

"I pretend you are standing with a bow and arrow on a goal line and looking at a target ten football fields away," he says. "That target is a key hole in a sliding door of a box car being pulled by a locomotive traveling at a speed of 2,000 miles an hour."

"Your task of hitting the key-hole with your arrow is no more of a challenge than that which has faced scientists in hitting the moon."

Apollo 17 marks the end of an era of manned space exploration beyond the earth's orbit.

The Kennedy Space Center in Florida will lose about 550 moonship workers after Apollo 17 has lifted off in a fiery night time extravaganza of power and precision.

And when next year's Skylab project ends, the work force at the sprawling space center will be chopped by more than 2,000 additional engineers and technicians.

In the wake of the three manned Skylab missions next year will come a manned space flight hiatus until July, 1975, when three U.S. astronauts are to rendezvous in orbit with two Russian cosmonauts.

After that will come a three-year vacuum, until 1978, when the U.S. manned space shuttle program sends astronauts back into earth orbit, signaling the start of a space transportation system.

Cernan, Apollo 17 mission commander and a veteran of the Apollo 10 flight which set the stage for man's first lunar landing, refuses to call the last moon flight the end of an era.

"Our desire is that Apollo 17 symbolize not the end of an era but rather the culmination of the beginning of mankind's greatest achievements in his history — achievements which only have as their bounds the infinity of space and time," he says.

"Apollo 17 is a symbol that man's seemingly impossible dreams can become limitless realities."

Largest Highway Job In 1972—$11.9 Million

An $11,969,726 contract, one of the largest awarded this year in Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie's road program, has been awarded by the Illinois Department of Transportation for 10 miles of paving in Whiteside County.

Transportation Secretary William F. Cellini said the contract was awarded Thursday to Areole Midwest Corp., Evanston, for paving on Supplemental Freeway 403 from west of Sterling to Ill. 78.

In addition to the paving, the contract calls for construction of six grade separation structures, two railroad grade separation structures over the Burlington RR tracks and two bridges over Deer creek.

Of the other contracts awarded, none involved Madison County.

GCHS Warriors Outlast MHS Trojan Caers 63-57

It was a close first half Friday evening when the Granite City High School basketball Warriors played host to the Madison Trojans. The half ended 28-28. But then the Warriors hit nine straight points, moving the score to 37-28 with 4:55 left in the third quarter and went on to win 67-53.

The two local teams are each 11, as the Warriors had lost their opener to Springfield-Griffin and the Trojans defeated Triad. Scoring by quarters went Madison 16-12-9-16 and for Granite City 17-11-19-20. Trojan Anthony "Duck" Matthews was the game's high point man with 23, followed by Warrior Tom Paterson with 19.

Other Trojans scoring were Jerry Belford 11, Charles Lucas 8, Rudolph Bradley 3, Roger Glasper and Robin Pritchard 2. Others scoring for the Warriors were Mark Gauen and Mike Martinez 16, Tom Vrenick 10, Steve Melzer 4, and Brett Champion 2.

The Trojans dominated the backboards 27-24, but the Warriors had nine turnovers compared to Madison's 23. GCHS led in field goals 32-24 and MHS led 5-3 in charity tosses.

The Warriors committed 18 fouls compared to the Trojans' 10. Vrenick fouled out at the start of the fourth quarter and Paterson left with 30 seconds to go.

"We got nervous when we started the second half," Trojan Cage Coach Larry Graham commented. "We have never played well on the Granite floor. It seems we always end up making some silly mistakes that should never happen. In the first three minutes of the third quarter we didn't get off a shot and committed five straight turnovers. You can't win ball games playing like that."

"The name of the game this year is hustle," Warrior Coach Don Deterding said. "We are short, not too quick, only fair shooters but we hustle and keep hustling and that will win ball games for us. The team has almost no varsity experience, but they give you everything they have got, and that's about all you can ask. "Madison guards were so quick we couldn't trap them with our press, so we pulled back a bit." Deterding continued. "They were getting the biggest share of their points on layups, which we cut off in the second half. We stopped them from getting those easy shots and then we started shooting better ourselves."

"We had two men foul out and that will probably continue as we are not too quick."

The Warriors won the junior varsity game 70-57.

Granite City will host Alton at 8:15 p.m. Friday in its first Southwestern Conference tilt. According to Deterding the Alton team starts two 6-8 men and one 6-5 man up front and has the two quickest guards in the conference.

The Trojans will host McKinley at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday.

James Makes 2nd MIAA Grid Team

Linebacker Harold James of Madison, a grider on the Northeast Missouri State University football team at Kirksville, Mo., was selected to the second unit of the 1972 all-conference team by Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association coaches.

James received recognition for the first time as a collegian. The 5'9½", 205-pound sophomore accounted for six of 23 NMSU interceptions, leading the MIAA in that department until the final two weeks of the campaign. He also recovered four fumbles, blocked a pass attempt, made 46 solo tackles and 22 assisted stops.

Wrestlers Open Season With Dual Wins at Jacksonville

The Granite City High School wrestlers opened their season on a victorious note Saturday defeating Jacksonville and Normal in a double dual meet at Jacksonville.

The Warriors downed Jacksonville 37-18 and Normal fell 41-14. Normal defeated Jacksonville during the event 36-29. Granite City won eight matches and lost four against Jacksonville and won nine, lost two and had one draw against Normal.

Warrior Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt commented, "Although

we looked fairly good, we were not up to last year's showing in the same meet." Last year Granite City had twice as many pins and lost only five matches rather than the six this year. Schmitt said the meet showed weaknesses in the middle weight divisions. He indicated that challenge matches will be held during practice this week which may well change the starting lineup.

Warrior double winners Saturday with their scores against Jacksonville and Normal were: Pat MacMillan (98), 17-0, pin in 5:56; Phil Lapinski (169), by default, 20-1; John Niebur (112) pin in 4:48, 16-0; Kerry Johnson (119), pin in 1:36, 9-0; Dennis Ragan (128), 7-0, pin in 3:49; John Hankins (145), 6-1, 5-2; Jack Schooley (167), 6-3, pin in 5:40, and John McMillon (heavyweight), pin in 2:40, 3-1. Other Warrior results against the two teams were: Don Heath (132), lost by pin in 1:32, draw 2-2; Dan Heath (138), lost 5-3, lost by pin in 2:57; Kenny Nelson (155), lost by pin in 4:55, won 13-0; John Avedisian (185), lost 7-5, lost by pin in 1:19. Granite City will host Bloomington and Decatur Eisenhower in a triangular meet at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Cougar Cagers Bow To Wisconsin 100-74

First half fidgets and fumbles marred the debut of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville playing Big 10 competition while the University of Wisconsin Badgers' basketball team trounced the Cougars of Coach Jim Dudley 100-74 Saturday afternoon.

It was SIUE's first game since the 1972-73 season and the first half blazes took a terrible toll. The Badgers led 51-24 at the intermission, but the Cougars outscored Wisconsin 50-29 in the last half as their Terry Carlson caught fire and scored 15 of his game total of 16.

Leading all game scorers was SIUE's standout guard and candidate for post-season honors, Tony Johnson. He poured in 22 points. The winners' Leon Howard tied the Cougars' Thurmond "Butch" Ferree for runner-up honors with each making 18 points.

SIUE will open its home season tomorrow night at the Edwardsville High gym with South-east Missouri State furnishing the opposition. Game time: 8 p.m.

Thursday night, Coach Dudley will take his Cougar cagers across the Mississippi to take on the University of Missouri, St. Louis Rivermen.

John Allen Young to Visit Boston Specialist and Tour White House

By VALERIE EVENDEN

Press-Record Staff Writer

Two major experiences will occur within the next seven days in the life of John Allen Young, the 9-year-old Granite City boy, who is a victim of retinitis pigmentosa, an eye disease for which no cure is known and always results in blindness.

The first episode will involve an examination Thursday in Boston, Mass., by a specialist who is developing a new approach in retinitis pigmentosa research and which, if unsuccessful, will prolong the time that persons afflicted with the disease can retain vision in one eye.

After the Boston visit, the next stop for the boy and his family will be Washington, D. C., and an escorted tour of the White House, and a few words with the President, if he is at home at the time.

Granite City Patrolman and Mrs. Albert Young and their son, John Allen, left today for the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, where the consultation with research specialists will take place.

Police Volunteer
While the father is absent from his job with the local police department, his duties will be handled by other Granite City officers who have volunteered to work their off days to enable the family to make the trip at this time, it was learned.

A $300 donation from Granite City Elks Lodge 1063 is aiding the Youngs with their travel expenses.

The examination in Boston was arranged by Dr. Stephen Podos of MacMillan Hospital and the Washington University faculty in St. Louis.

Delaying Measure
The ophthalmologist advised the Youngs last July during a consultation at MacMillan Hospital about the new idea being developed by Dr. Elliot Berson of Boston.

Dr. Podos explained that the theory being advanced by Dr. Berson is not a cure, just a delaying tactic, but it has opened a new field of exploration in retarding total blindness.

The concept involves covering one eye with a contact lens, blacking out vision completely and allowing the patients to use one eye only.

When vision goes in the uncovered eye, the contact lens is removed and, hopefully, vision in the second eye still will remain for a period of time.

Theory Is New
The St. Louis eye specialist has cautioned the Youngs against over optimism, noting the theory is so new—within the past year—that results cannot yet be concluded, even as a delaying process.

However, the news given the Youngs last July was the first hope the family had received that total blindness may be postponed to any degree.

No treatment or cure has been found to arrest or retard the disease which attacks the retina, the sensory membrane of the eye that receives the image formed by the lens and transmits the picture by the optic nerve to the brain.

The disease normally manifests itself in childhood and develops to its final stage in varying lengths of time. Several children in a family can be affected, as it is an hereditary ailment.

At White House
On the second part of their whirlwind journey to the Eastern states, the Granite City family has received confirmation from The White House of the special tour arrangements.

The Youngs were advised to arrive at the Appointment Gate on East Executive Avenue, at 11 a.m. Monday, Dec. 11, by Michael J. Farrell, special assistant to the President.

Oral Surgery Topic of SIUE Dental Course

"Principles of Oral Surgery" will be the topic of a continuing education course for area dentists Thursday at the Southern Illinois University School of Dental Medicine in Alton.

Dr. Bruno Kwapis, Belleville dentist and professor at the dental school, said the course is intended to present an overview of contemporary philosophy and methodology in the application of basic oral surgical principles to the practice of general dentistry.

Kwapis, who will be assisted in the course by Dr. John Angello, a dental school faculty member, holding D.D.S. and M.D. degrees, said specific topics covered will include surgery of impacted and problem teeth, management of complications associated with removal of teeth, surgical preparation of the mouth for prosthesis, treatment of traumatic injuries to teeth, management of mouth and jaw infections and management of bleeding diathesis in dental patients.

The course will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Center for Professional Advancement on the Alton campus. The $35 fee includes lunch.

DRIVER INJURED

Mrs. Kathy Anglin, 22, of 3005 Dale Ave., was injured when her auto and another driven by James A. Bradley, 2040 Hildebrand St., Cloverleaf, were in an accident at 3:50 p.m. Thursday on Route 203 four-tenths of a mile north of Bend Road. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital with multiple lacerations and abrasions and was transferred to Firmin DeLoe Hospital, St. Louis, following x-rays.

State Plans Unusual Phone Service as Health Aid

Capley News Service

Springfield—An unusual telephone service for persons who have contracted venereal diseases — or fear they may have — is being inaugurated soon by the Illinois department of public health.

High school and college-age volunteers are being sought to state-wide phones operating from a central location in Springfield, to provide information on request.

Department personnel hope to have recruited enough volunteers to get the service in operation by early December.

Young volunteers are being sought because venereal diseases, spiraling near or past the epidemic point all over the nation, are increasing most rapidly among the young, so most callers are expected to be in the lower age brackets and will presumably identify more easily with others their own ages.

"Anonymity" will be the name of the game since callers will never be asked to identify themselves. They may be asked to tell in what part of the state they live, so they can be referred to appropriate and accessible clinics or other health facilities for testing, and treatment, if needed.

Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, state health director, said the program was brought about by the fact that venereal diseases, particularly gonorrhea, have reached epidemic proportions in Illinois, and many young people who have, or fear they have, the diseases do not know where to go for diagnosis and/or treatment, and do not wish their parents or family doctors to know they are infected.

In Illinois, anyone between the ages of 12 and 21 can obtain treatment for venereal disease without parental consent.

if they just know where to go for medical help.

How many young people will be required to handle the "hot line" isn't known, since some volunteers may be able to work only an hour or so a week, while others may be available for several hours a day.

All volunteers will receive a training session on how to respond and how to use reference materials which will be available to them when on duty. Expert advice also will be available, as needed.

Currently, plans call for operating the service from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., daily, and calls from any telephone in the state will be toll-free.

Merit Selection of Judges Topic for 1973 Legislature

By RAY SERATI
Capley News Service

Springfield — Apparently the battle for the merit selection of judges in Illinois will be carried to the 78th General Assembly which convenes on Jan. 10.

A committee is being formed to push the proposal. It will be known as the Committee on Courts and Justice.

The committee is an outgrowth of activities two years ago when a big push was made to get voter approval of the proposed merit selection to be included in the 1970 state constitution.

The committee will try to get as much of a statewide base as possible. The proposal is a separate merit selection of judges caused a great deal of discussion in the 1970 Constitutional Convention. Finally, it was decided to present the proposal as a separate issue for the voters. Voters then turned down the proposal.

During the General Assembly session earlier this year, a proposal was presented to the lawmakers to allow merit selection of judges by the General Assembly. Another provision of the proposal would have given remaining counties in the state the option at a later referendum to choose whether or not they wanted merit selection of judges.

This proposal was tossed in the hopper but it got held up in the House Executive Committee.

Now the committee is setting out for a new try. How much support the proposal will pick up in the Assembly isn't quite determined.

Opposition has come from members of both political parties and from throughout the state; it has not been viewed as a Chicago against Downstate issue.

STRUCK BY CHAIR

Mrs. Lorraine Joshi of the Toledo Hot Dog Restaurant, 19th Street and Rock Road, reported at 9:30 p.m. Thursday that she was struck by a chair by a customer who had been arguing with her husband over a $12 restaurant bill the customer had accumulated.

members of both political parties and from throughout the state; it has not been viewed as a Chicago against Downstate issue.

Governor-elect Daniel Walker has said he supports the idea of merit selection of judges. Presumably, the committee will try to enlist Walker's help after he is sworn in as governor.

This proposal was tossed in the hopper but it got held up in the House Executive Committee.

Now the committee is setting out for a new try. How much support the proposal will pick up in the Assembly isn't quite determined.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL MELCHO. They exchanged wedding vows at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ. The bride is the former Miss Christine Brave, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Brave, 3027 Mockingbird Lane.

St. Peter's Scene of Melcho-Brave Wedding

St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ was the scene of the late afternoon wedding on Nov. 25 of Miss Christine L. Brave and Michael L. Melcho of Mattoon, Ill.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Brave, 3027 Mockingbird Lane. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Melcho, reside at 89 Archer Drive, Marshall, Ill.

Baskets of white "mums" decorated the altar and lighted tapers in branched candelabra illuminated the sanctuary for the double ring ceremony performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Robert L. Kettichut.

Larry Barry, organist, accompanied Miss Debbie Hightower as she sang, "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Brave escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She wore a beautifully designed gown of white organza over tulle enhanced with cotton lace. Long full sleeves with gathered lace at the wrists were set in an Empire bodice fashioned with a high lace collar and V-shaped panels of cotton lace on the front and back of the dress.

The A-line skirt terminated with a very wide lace flounce and two rows of matching trim. An elbow length veil of illusion was held in place with a band of lace petals and she carried a cascade of white "mums" and yellow cymbidium orchids.

Miss Kathleen A. Brave, the bride's only sister, served as maid of honor. The best man was David Melcho, a brother of the groom.

The honor attendant wore an olive nylon velvet frock made with a high-rise waist and square neckline. Ecru lace formed an overbodice and the lace was repeated at the cuffs of the long full sleeves.

She held a colonial bouquet of bronze, rust and yellow poms.

Bob Mott and Danny Melcho, a brother of the groom, seated the guests.

Miss Linda Melcho attended the guest book at the buffet dinner served at Lewis and Clark Restaurant, East Alton, following the ceremony.

The former Miss Brave attended Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, and is coordinator of the Expanded Food and Nutrition Educational Program with the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service.

Her husband, a graduate of Lakeland College, Mattoon, is employed as a draftsman at IBC Homes in Mattoon.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Brave chose to wear a street-length gown of tawny green sequia fashioned with dolman sleeves. Black accessories complemented her attire.

The groom's mother selected a moss colored Jacquard knit dress with black accessories. Yellow mum corsages were worn by both mothers.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Melcho will make their home in Charleston, Ill.

The Schermer Bulletin

One of the nice things we have at Schermers is "nice people." Schermer's customers are the "greatest." Let us give you an example. On the day before Thanksgiving, a male customer came in late in the day with a complaint. "I bought a turkey and it doesn't have any giblets." Well, this is no small matter, because how do you make giblet dressing without giblets? Unfortunately, we were out of extra giblets by this time. However, Monday afternoon, the same customer came in and related that they found the giblets. Where? In the neck cavity where they are supposed to be. He had looked only in the body cavity. All's well that ends well.

We read in last week's paper about a supermarket that claims to be the champion "Pee" store with 28 varieties. We how to superior numbers. Schermer's claim to fame is that we have everything in stock. Our shelves are never empty and of course our "long suit" is service. In our produce department, in our meat department, in fact all over we have real LIVE people who are interested in YOU and YOUR NEEDS. That is why we are in business. And last but not least, when you finish your shopping trip through our store, the happy ending is at the checkout. Not only "price-wise," but we use enough checkers and bag boys to give the best service possible. If you ever have to wait a few minutes to get checked out in our store, it is not because we don't have the people scheduled. The day before Thanksgiving, we had all seven lanes rolling and 14 carryout boys assisting in these lanes. Yes, that's right, we still believe that our customers are entitled to "carryout" service and we offer to load every order, large or small. These are the important things in our book.

P.S. Be sure and visit the garden shop. Many of our new, fascinating and unusual items are already starting to sell out. Come down early and avoid disappointment.

Consumers Warned About Mail Order Companies

Illinois Atty. Gen. William J. Scott has warned consumers to be wary of ordering Christmas gifts from unknown companies who advertise in popular magazines.

Scott advised mail-order shoppers to order only from companies known to be reputable, and to place their orders early to insure Christmas deliveries.

Scott cited the example of a suit filed today by his Consumer Fraud office against a sports equipment company that allegedly failed to fill mail orders. More than 1,000 complaints against the company were filed with the office. The complainants—many of them young children—said that they had placed prepaid orders with the sports equipment company but had not received their merchandise.

The suit, filed in the Circuit Court of Cook County, named defendant Sports Life Inc., 1031 Davis St., Evanston, Ill., a retail mail order sports equipment firm that advertised in national magazines and periodicals beginning in September 1971, Scott said.

Because the defendant's ads were placed far in advance of publication dates, many may still be running. The company may still be receiving orders and money from consumers.

Scott's suit charged Sports Life Inc., with "deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise and misrepresentation" in the advertising and soliciting of sales, and with failing to or refusing to send consumers the merchandise for which they had paid in advance.

The attorney general's suit also charged the company with stating in advertisements that "Sports Life Inc. is a fully bonded company," when in fact it has no bond to protect consumers in case it fails to deliver merchandise ordered and paid for by its customers.

The attorney general asked the court to:

Enjoin Sports Life from advertising and selling merchandise in Illinois.

Order Sports Life to make a full accounting of all prepaid merchandise orders.

Require Sports Life to refund all money from unfilled orders.

Enjoin Sports Life from taking any action which would deplete in any way their merchandise inventory.

Enjoin Sports Life from taking any action which would deplete in any way their bank and savings accounts.

Appoint a receiver for Sports Life's assets.

Permit any customer who can prove that he has a claim against Sports Life to participate in the distribution of the firm's assets.

To revoke all licenses, per-chandise inventory.

Junior College Grads Offered SIUE Tuition

Scholarships for junior college graduates planning to attend Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are available, according to Paul Burns, SIUE's junior college coordinator.

Burns said the SIUE Board of Trustees has authorized 50 awards paying for two years of tuition, "but very few have been awarded, primarily due to lack of applicants."

The only requirement is that the applicant be a graduate of an accredited Illinois junior college. "A grade average of 'B' or better helps but isn't a requirement," he said.

Persons interested in applying can contact Burns at 692-2720 or the SIUE Student Work and Financial Assistance Office, 692-3880.

Blair Likely to Edge Choate for Speaker of House

By KEN WATSON
Copy News Service

Springfield — Illinois Republicans have a new personality problem. It's House Speaker W. Robert Blair, 42, of Park Forest. In a somewhat weird climax to what has been one of the most confusing and puzzling years in Illinois political history, Blair has held on to the speakership for the 1973 legislative session despite a lack of personal popularity virtually unprecedented among legislative leaders.

The impression here is that Blair won out in a close fight over Chicagoan Henry Hyde in what pool players would call a case of "reverse English."

Although a majority of the 89 Republican House members have on abiding affection for Blair and most of them hold Hyde in high respect, there appeared beneath the surface a distinct suspicion and mistrust of the way in which Hyde was playing the game.

This in itself is intriguing, since it was Blair who came under strong press and public criticism for allegedly using control of House campaign funds to further his own campaign for re-election as Speaker. But some legislators seemed less concerned about this than the fact that Hyde had been defeated in the March primary and won his way back to the House only through some maneuvering by veteran Chicago House member Peter J. "Pete" Miller.

Following Hyde's primary defeat, Miller obligingly resigned from the House to permit Hyde to run in his district, win re-election after all and remain in contention for the speakership. Miller has long been recognized as one of the most masterful wheedlers and dealers in the legislature.

A controversial figure, he is popular with many on the Statehouse scene, but intensely disliked by others. Some legislators envy him for what amounts to a tidy enclave of Capitol patronage, denied to most ordinary lawmakers.

Although Miller and Hyde frequently denied it, there is a persistent Statehouse opinion that Hyde as Speaker would mean a good job for "Pete." This anti-Miller

Student Help Needed to Defer Crime at SIUE

The need for student cooperation to deter crime around Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was stressed last week by law enforcement officers in a forum at the university.

Participating in the session were John Maeras, Madison County sheriff; Ed Carpenter, director of public safety for the city of Edwardsville; Carl Foster, chief of SIUE security; and Wayne Schrage, SIUE security investigator. Several hundred students, faculty and staff attended the open session, which was organized by SIUE student government President Mike Manning.

Schrage said one of the biggest security problems on campus is auto theft. Through October, 38 cars and two motorcycles were stolen from campus parking areas in 1972.

Schrage said 33 of the vehicles were recovered and three arrests were made. Three vehicles stolen elsewhere were recovered on the SIUE campus.

"Many of the people arrested for auto theft and other violations aren't students here and have no connection with the campus. Some of them are professional burglars," Schrage said. "Our security force is understaffed and we can't do everything by ourselves. When people on campus see suspicious people, if we would get a call, we could prevent some things from happening."

Foster said the security office is working with student government to improve communications. He said a committee of students, faculty, staff and administrators will be named soon to meet regularly with security officers.

Maeras said the sheriff's office has had "wonderful cooperation with the university security people." He said meetings are held monthly between his office and SIUE officials. "We're always around to help, but we don't come on campus unless we're called," he said.

Carpenter, after mentioning the "tremendous cooperation" city police have had from SIUE students living in Edwardsville, warned the audience about hazardous railroad crossings in the city.

"There are at least seven crossings that aren't properly marked," Carpenter said. "We're working to correct the problem, but in the meantime we're hoping to educate people not to challenge trains at crossings. That's one game you can't win."

Carpenter also warned of the dangers of swimming in the shale pit in the city limits. He said last summer 175 persons were arrested there on charges of trespassing. The pit is dangerous, he said, because there is no supervision, the water is cold and the depth of the pit is unknown.

During the question-answer period, members of the audience asked all four law enforcement officers a variety of questions, most of them touching on the university policy of security officers carrying guns.

An official university policy adopted in 1970 says university police and other law enforcement officers should not carry arms on campus during normal daylight operations or during demonstrations and on university parking regulations.

So if you're interested in modernizing your heating system, get the facts on electric heat now. Our residential sales representative will survey your home, recommend the type of system and insulation needed, and estimate operating costs.

And if his survey shows that electric heat isn't practical for your home, he'll tell you so.

The Madison Lions Club played host to a Lions' zone meeting Thursday at the Sportsman's Club, Tenth and Iowa streets, Madison.

The zone chairman said he wants all clubs to have what is designated as a "100% President." To earn this designation a club must have a net gain in membership, perform a major civic service, be host to a zone meeting, have all reports in on time to international and hold an inter-club meeting during the year.

Reports also were given on the Leader Dog School for the Blind and the Lion's Care projects.

In loving memory of
BILLY L. MORGAN
who passed away December 3, 1971.
I cannot say and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He wandered into an "unknown" land.
And yet I am dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you-off you, who the wildest
yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return
Think of him faring on as dear
in the love of there.
Think of him still as the same,
I say—
He is not dead — he is just away.

Byron Announces State's Attorney Office Personnel

Nicholas G. Byron, new Madison County state's attorney, who began his term today, has announced plans to departmentalize his office.

Byron and Alton attorney Larry Keshner and Don Smith will supervise and monitor criminal and civil cases. The two attorneys will be employed on a part-time basis.

In addition to regular duties, the committee will be in re-serve to work on felony cases and civil matters, he said.

The felony department will include as full-time assistants Robert Trone and John Webster, plus a part-time assistant, Casper Nighobanian.

Misdemeanor cases and small traffic charges will be handled geographically, Byron said, with Casper Nighobanian to cover the Granite City area on a part-time basis.

Clayton Williams, another part-time assistant from Alton, will work from the state's attorney's office primarily in family cases and some felony work. American K. Kachigian of Granite City also was named to part-time duties in the family area. He has served as an assistant state attorney.

Full-Time Duties
Don O'Neil of Alton will have general duties on a full-time basis.

Ted Diaz of Alton, who was an assistant state's attorney, will serve as a part-time specialist.

William Schooley of Granite City will serve part-time on civil cases.

The part-time positions will be staffed with full-time personnel eventually if budgetary problems are solved, Byron said, adding that he would take advantage of federal funds and local law enforcement agencies in obtaining federal funds.

Byron has yet to hire a full-time assistant for the appeals, education and research department. He earlier named Devey Van Dyke, who was chief criminal clerk, to the new position of administrative aide.

Post Corp. Sets Higher Dividend

Appleton, Wis. — A quarterly dividend of 10 cents per share, payable Dec. 29 to shareholders of All-Star Insurance Co., was declared Friday by the Post Corporation board of directors.

This represents a one-cent increase over the nine cents per share paid since June 30, 1972.

Post Corp., owner of the Press-Record, is a diversified firm with media and insurance operations in eight states.

The election of J. Roger Motherway as executive vice-president of All-Star Insurance Co., a Post Corp. subsidiary, was announced Thursday by All-Star's board of directors.

The board also announced election of three new board members. They are Motherway, Harold C. Trencott, All-Star's vice-president, finance and administration, and Francis S. Sackler, president, Sackler & Company, Inc., Indianapolis, Ind.

Motherway had been acting general manager since the resignation of J. H. Romebeck in September. He previously was vice-president, underwriting.

Before joining All-Star, Motherway was an underwriting manager for the special risk division of Great American Insurance Co. for the Midwest and Southwestern areas and also a surplus lines broker for several years. He has served with U.S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. and Allstate Insurance Co. in underwriting.

Trencott was named All-Star's vice-president, last August. He previously was treasurer, controller and statistical director of Heritage Mutual Insurance Co., Sheboygan, Wis. He is a certified public accountant.

Sackler is president of Post Corporation's reinsurance subsidiary which brokers reinsurance in the U.S. and international markets.

Sackler formerly was with Booth, Potter, Seal & Co., Inc., Philadelphia, where he was vice-president. He also has served as an accounting manager for Bails & Co., Inc., reinsurance, also of Philadelphia.
